

AnnonceLe Lycée Chrysalide à Ivato, Madagascar*Seeking Collaborations and Book Donations

The Chrysalis School opened in September 2006 with the mission to educate a new generation of open-minded young people who love reading. Located in the village of Ivato, near the capital of Madagascar, the school educates young people between the ages of 12 and 19, with a focus on reading and foreign-language skills. Please check out the school's new web site for more information: www.chrysalismadagascar.com

The school is interested in collaborating on projects with teachers in other countries, and is seeking donations of French books to help build up its new library. Fiction, grammar books and dictionaries (French or French-English) would all be welcome and used copies are fine. Please see the web site for the mailing address and other contact information.
