AFLS and the Data Protection Act

AFLS intends to record and process the membership data above on a computer database. The purpose for which data will be held is:

- keeping AFLS membership records up-to-date (including setting reminders about renewal);
- producing labels for the mailing to members of the AFLS newsletter and other information that the AFLS wishes to circulate to its members;
- producing a list of members for possible publication.

I have read the details of the computerised membership records that AFLS wishes to produce and have no objection.

Signature: Date:

While we do not need a signature for credit card payments, we do need your signature for the Data Protection Act.
